Jan. 10.—Lydia Wheeler and others, executors, vs. John Williams.—Motion to dissolve injunction denied, $10 cost to skide event.

The Hutchinson Family will give their Last Concert at Metropolitan Hall, Tuesday evening, January 13th, 1852. Commercial Bank, Perth Amboy.-Notes on this bank are redeemed at 25 per cent discount, by E Evans, 70 and 72 Fulton street, in payment for ready made clothing of all descriptions. Talleyrand said, "Mistakes were worse then crimes." Now there is no mistake in the ft of Shirts made at No. 1 Aster House. Green's system of measure-ment is intallible as a rule in mathematics. Then he makes a set of Shirts with unequalled despatch, and never disap-points a customer, either as to the time or the article.

The Brother Jonathan arrived yester-day, freighted with valuables from the El Dorado. We might whisper to its lucky passengers, in wasto folohing, that T. Smith, jr., 102 Fulton street, can replenish year wardrobe neater, quicker, and cheaper than any other es-ts biginiment. Give him a call, and ever after T. Smith, jr., will be your tailor.

SATURDAY, January 10-6 P. M. rather more limited. It appears to be difficult to get up an excitement among outside speculators, and it will re-There is too much anxiety among holders to realize, and the moment a little improvement takes place, the market is flooded with stocks. This causes a reaction, and outsiders are deterred from taking hold as purchasers; At the first board, to-day, Erie Railroad advanced 1/4 per sent ; Morris Canal, %; Harlem, 1/4; N. J. Zinc, 1/4; North American Trust, 14; Sussex Mining Co., 14; Reading Railroad, 14; New York and New Haven Railroad, 1; Erie Income Bonds, 34. There was more doing in Reading Railroad, the sales being dividend off. Very few believe that the dividend has been earned, and many holders of stock have less faith in its value since than they had before. This company have a large floating debt, which must remain unpaid, and not only so but allowed to increase. The special act of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, prohibiting this company from enlarging its construction account, seems to have not had the effect intended. Since the parsage of that act, a floating debt of one million of dollars has accumulated, and no provisions have been made for its payment. In the face of these things, a dividend of three and a half per cent has been paid, and the stockholders are, no doubt, glad to get it To secure the greatest benefit from an investment in this stock, it would be necessary to sell out as soon as the dividend is paid. The receipts at the office of the Assistant Treasurer of this pert to-day, amounted to $61,578 90; payments, $101 783 90- balance $1.691,595. The amount of specie exported from this port during last week was as annexed:-

The News from England, and Kusmith-Another Drawbsek-Highly Important Respecting Geo. Scott-Singular Facts Connected with the Jackson Festival-The Split still Open in the Democratic Party-Chance for the Whigs-Korrath in the for Presidential Campaign.

The news of the resignation of Lord Paimerston, we understand, is regarded by Kossuth as another blow upon the republican cause all over Europe, and as post-poning indefinitely the necessity for his return to England. The sudden death of Louis Napoleon is now the only chance for the projected liberating movement on the Continent. His life is the guarantee of peace and of a close and methodical compact among the monarchies, between the United States and England, to enforce upon Russia the dectrine of nen-intervention, falls to the ground, "an obsolete idea." The future policy of Koshowever, continue the same, in the hope that some providential circumstance may turn up, which will lead to a general civil war in Europe, and make the doctrine of our active intervention a practical thing. The coup d'état of Louis Napoleon, therefore, has broken up the plans of the revolutionists, and left them to the precaour active intervention a practical thing. The comp d'état of Louis Napoleon, therefore, has broken up the plans of the revolutionists, and left them to the precarious chances of future events. Kossuch thus ceases to be the missionary of a revolutionary scheme, and becomes the mere dependant upon some miraculous change in European affairs. Palmerston's resignation drives the last nail into the coffin of active intervention. The idea of an alliance between us and England against Russia—at all times impracticable—now becomes absurd.

The Pope led off in the revolution of 1843. England ig not prepared to risk the experiment in 1852. She recollis from the alternative of a war against Nincholas, Francis Joseph, and Louis Napoleon. Kossuth must be content to wait a little longer; and he will doubtless wait on this side the Atlantic.

One reasen why General Scott was not present at the Congressional Banquet was that he was absent in Virginia; but at the same time it is quite likely that his absence was in part attributable to a desire to encape the inconveniences of answering an invitation to the dinner. Soldier as he is, he is desaded against intervention, and all foreign emis-aries, whose object is to involve us in either a large or a small glibmatero expelition. The General is a whig, and an utra wing—a whigconservative of the old school; and we doubt not, if this thing of intervention in the affairs of Europe is limpertant, if true; and we may yet come to this altertaitive.

Gen Sam Houston was at the Jackson dinner, last might, to Kossuth, but escaped in season to avoide the responsibility of a speech.—And thereby barges rate.

The General, after the supicions attached to him, in consequence of the Greer and Donaidson correspondence, is anxious to steer clear of the free soil party. The old Van Buren regime control the Jackson Association—they are angling with Kossuth as their bait, for the General, after the supicions at a deviate and the season to avoide the worse from the moving to corresponde

An additional impetus has been given to the cause of odd fellowship, by admitting the ladtes within the precincts of its mysteries By virtue of the authority given by the Grand Lodge of the United States, Atlantic Lodge of this city, initiated seven ladies—the wives of members of the order-during the past week. The fortunate ones are greatly envied by their fair friends; and those for-merly most opposed to secret societies, are determined to marry odd fellows for the purpose of satisfying their order. Their dread of riding the goat, which, according o common rumor, is one of the initiatory rites, have be n caimed by the assurance that the animal is to have a side-saddle, on which a lady is to mount.

A beautiful gold medal has been prepared by order of the Grand Ledge of the I O of O F. of this State, for presentation to George S. Morris, of York, Pa., the late Passed Grand Master of Pennsylvania. It is richis chased with the emblems of the order, and an appropriate inscription testifying to his "merits as an officer, and

The City of Pittsburg, now in her forty first day from Liverpool, passed our Breakwater under sail. The purser of the ship landed at Lewes, and reports by telegraph that the propeller of the Pittsburg was carried away when but three days out. Her commoder, Capt. Stotesbury, was not deterred by the accident but continued his voyage under sail. The run was, however, retarded beyond his expectations by weather the most tempestuous and adverse that he ever rememers encountering. She took a pilot about 5 o'closs test evening, twenty miles south of Cape Henlopen. The underwriters of this city yesterday refused to take risks upon her cargo at tem per cent.

Earah Gerber was this morning found guilty of murder in the second degree, by the verdict of the jury in her case, which was ancounced and appeared to feel remorse for her crime. Her sentence will be the shortest term for the grade of which she has been canvicted; and she will be placed where she can receive excellent moral training, and perhaps be restored to her parents while yet in her childhood.

ALBANY, January 8, 1852.

Sketch of the New York Delegation, &c.

By common consent, this session of the Legislature seems to be marked, in advance, as one of the funniest and busiest ressions ever held in the State of New York since the new constitution. The two houses are so nearly a tie, the Presidential election is so near at hand, and the disjointed and uneasy condition of both parties so manifest, that an undue number of Legislative ruses and parliamentary tactics will doubtless be played off on both sides, to the infinite amusement of unconcerned individuals, but with dubious effect upon the interests of the people at large.

The New York delegation were early upon the ground, with the exception of Mr. Miner, detained at home by sickness. They are a highly respectable body of men. of all ages, from twenty-one to fifty, and representing almost all professions and pursuits of life Mr. Maloney, from your Second district, is a self-educated man, remarkably well versed in political strategies, for which indeed, the Third ward has afforded in its day a fair field. Mr. Rese, of the Third district, is the oldest man of the democratic delegation. He has been beretofore ranked as a barnburner of the Purser stamp, and is, E believe, the only democrat from New York who did not obtain the endorsement of the cotton committee last fail. Mr. Rose is, however, now considered a moderados and will not probably differ from his colleagues. Mr. Ward, of the Fourth district, is the only whig elected who did not get the Union nomination, and consequently is ranked as a woolly head. Mr. Brown represe whig district, the Fifth, from which he is chosen by means of an old feud-commonly known as the " Tommy means of an old feud—commonly known as the "Tommy Trusiow row"—among the whigs along the East River. Brown is a self-made man, of considerable abilities. He is a much cider man than his youthful face would indicate. The Sixth district has returned Mr. Blackstone, a quiet silver gray, and the only member of the last Assembly from the city who was re elected Mr Blackstone is a man of fair abilities, and is understood to stand pledged to introduce a law identical with the Maine Anti-Liquor Law on the first convenient opportunity Mr. Luckey, from the Seventh district, succeeds Mr. Raymond; and although he may not aspire to the distinction that that eminent woelly head attained among the small fry of the two late sessions, be will be found, if I mistake not, a hard working and efficient member. Like Mr. Blackstone, Mr. Luckey, from the Eighth district, represents the unterrified Tenth ward. Mr Gale has been called a barnburner, but was one of thore who returned early to the fold of old Tammany, and is now ranked in full standing among the brethren. Without doubt, he will be a reliable and active member, and his influence over his younger colleagues of the same party is siready looked upon as very considerable. Dr. Rollins, from the Ninth district, is a quiet, good fellow, who without aspiring to "much speaking." will be nevertheless highly ertecemed and appreciated by those who may have opportunity, by close intimacy, to observe his real shrewdness and cound sense. Colonel Monroe represents the rural districts of Mannattan Island with his usual dignity, circumicontion, and tremendous segmenty. The Colonel has been awfully humburged about the Speakership—that is the fact. That such a position was due him by his political friends is how conceded, the Colonel's friends ever doubted. Fur he was the security in which Colonel Monroe reposed that he left your city at the very last moment, only to arrive Truslow row '-among the whigs along the East River.
